

Bullying Prevention in ACPS

ACPS is strongly committed to creating a safe and positive school environment in which the academic performance and social emotional and physical well-being of all students is supported. The ACPS Department of Student Services and Equity provides programs and staff that promote healthy, caring, and responsible behaviors among students.